Everyone had so much fun with the bouncy house, games and the Kona Ice Truck. A special Thank You! to all the wonderful volunteers who helped at the event!

The Summer Library calendar is chock full of amazing programs and amazing opportunities for all ages to earn prizes in the reading challenge. Would you like to create a flower bookmark for all the books you'll be reading? Perhaps grab a museum pass for a fun outing?

Eugene's Corner:

Speaking of museum passes, Eugene heard about all of Miss Jill's adventures at the New England Aquarium and now he'd like to go! To get ready for his trip, Eugene read The Secrets of the Octopus by Sy Montgomery. He's also planning to create a canvas of some of the fantastic creatures he sees to enter into the Mini Canvas Contest this summer. He'll earn summer reading badges right and left! Ask a librarian for a mini canvas kit to enter.

MUSEUM PASSES HERE

Bookworm Bookstore:

When next you visit the Bookworm Bookstore, you will notice a small increase in prices. It will now cost $2 for a hardcover and $1 for a paperback. This is to help cover costs of the immense amount of incredible programs and events the Friends put on for the benefit of our community. It is still a great bargain and all proceeds go to our beautiful library!

What's Going On at the Library:

Something to look forward: OLD HOME DAY!!!! It is not that far into the future. This year's date is August 29th. We will have the book sale, the pie and ice cream sale and once again, the raffle! This year's prize is a kayak! Look for the display later on in July. Can you man the book sale, bake a pie or help set up? There are myriad ways to help at this important fundraiser. Please consider signing up at the library to volunteer during this grand event.

We hope to see you at our next meeting June 16th at 4pm.

Gratefully,

~The Friends of the Gilford Public Library Board
