

Friends BUZZ

Dear Friend,

Believe it or not, spring is just around the corner! At least, according to the calendar. Did you know that Winnie-the-Pooh is 100 years old? He and all his friends in the 100 Acre Woods have been delighting people around the world for decades. He really is a cultural phenomenon and has been translated into over 50 languages. The library celebrated him last Wednesday with a delightful program presented by the Powerhouse Theater. This was their first all-teen production and it was wonderful! They included the audience at several points throughout the show which the children very much enjoyed. Thanks so much to the Powerhouse Theater!

Our next meeting is March 24th 4PM.

Eugene's Corner:

His recovery continues and we appreciate everyone's gentle care and concern. He is still able to give recommendations. This month he'd like to remind the adults who visit the children's room that there are

Bookworm Bookstore:

Speaking of books, have you checked out the Bookworm Bookstore lately, located at the far end of the children's room? This month's featured authors are Lee Childs, James Patterson and Nicholas Sparks. We want to acknowledge the very special Friends who keep the books and shelves in tip top shape, Peter Allen, Steve Melbourne, and Betty Tidd.

Recent Library Updates:

30 volunteers gave 190 hours of their time and talents in January!

Zen Booth usage increased in the month of January!

18 passports were processed in January. There are 5 passport agents available by appointment!

Notary public agents are available to help you!

What's Going On at the Library:

To your right you will see our many exercise classes, they are a great way to get active! Also ongoing – the Adult Reading Challenge. Prizes for this quarter have already been awarded! Keep on reading and you too may earn a prize, as well as achieving personal satisfaction and enjoyment in your book choices.
