Join us at our next meeting, November 18 at 4pm

October's highlight was the Friends of the Library Social, from the delicious food provided by Curt's Catering to the lovely melodies from Jane Ellis at the piano. Congratulations to the winners of the Raffle Baskets!

Katherine Dormody and Betty Tidd shared a fascinating presentation on the history of the Gilford Public Library and the Friends of the Library. It started as a community organized and supported adventure and you all help that tradition continue.

Establishment of public library for Gilford at the Deacon Hunter House in 1894.

Library at Belknap Mt. Road, 1984.

Friends' Bookstore remodeled, 2024. A shared community space!

Following on the heels of the Library's Early Release Halloween activity, the Friends sponsored the traditional Halloween Spooky Story Walk at the library. We so appreciate all the volunteers that helped with this event!

Eugene's Corner:

Eugene wanted to share that as much as loves the books in the Children's Room, he does enjoy books from the Teen Room as well!

This month's spooky recommendation from Eugene is The Undead Fox of Deadwood Forest by Aubrey Hartman.

That book is currently on the nightstand of the Friend's president, but she promises to get it back to the library quickly!

Make sure the check your Library calendars for upcoming fun and fitness programs, sponsored by the Friends. Check the calendar for all upcoming library events.

We hope to see you at our next meeting, November 18 at 4pm.

Gratefully,

~The Friends of the Gilford Public Library Board
