

Mission Statement

The mission of the library is to provide free and open access to a broad range of high-quality materials and services to foster lifelong learning, community engagement and personal enrichment for all patrons.

To fulfill its mission, the library employs a knowledgeable well-trained staff committed to excellent service.