

November 3, 2026

Once upon a midnight dreary? Nay, once upon an autumn cheery. The fall season is fully upon us. The leaves are changing and the air has taken on a crisp and often brisk quality. Wouldn't it be best to spend it curled up with a good book, while the vibrant leaves cast a warm glow?

The library doesn't just have good reads, but also many great programs to enrich your life. "Yellowstone Magic" brings the natural world to you tonight at 5:30pm, "Morning and Evening Routines" on Wednesday at 4pm to keep you healthy, and "The Great Transition" to help you cope with moving homes on Monday at 4pm.

Lastly, as a final reminder, it's Voting Day so be sure to make your way to the Gilford Youth Center and perform your civic duty. While you're at it, come by the library and say hi!

Photo of the Week

The Preschool Halloween Party turned into a glow-stick dance party!

Museum Passes

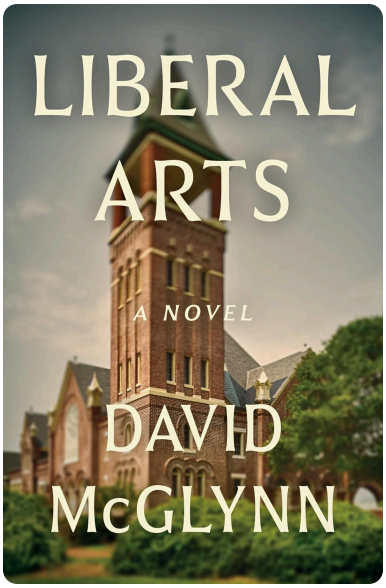

Recorded Programs

Library of Things

Princh

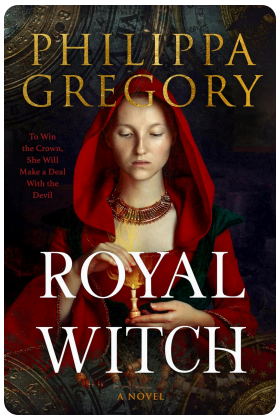

On the Librarian's Nightstand

Liberal Arts by David McGlynn

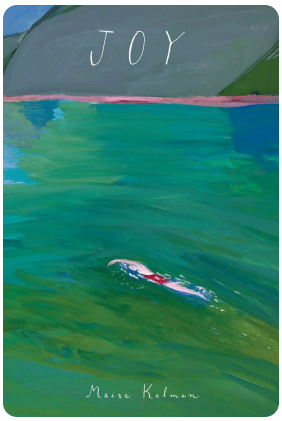

"Each thread is rendered with such clarity and tenderness that the novel reads like a single, sprawling act of empathy building toward a moving affirmation that the deepest value of a liberal arts education may lie in teaching us how to live with compassion. This is the rare campus novel with as much heart as intellect."

—Booklist, starred review

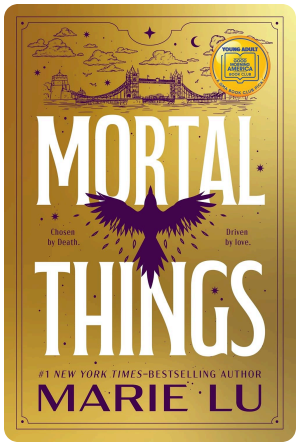

Royal Witch
by Philippa Gregory

Joy
by Maira Kalman

Please Enjoy Your Stay
by Tara Goedjen

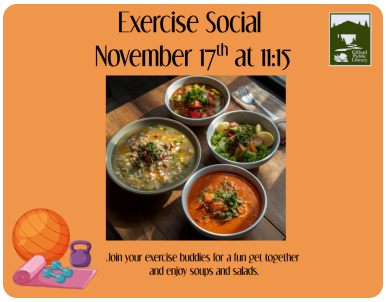

Mortal Things
by Marie Lu

Death Cafe

Be a part of a respectful and supportive space to discuss a natural part of life with Ruth O'Hara and Carol Wallace.

Tuesday,
November 10 @ 3:00PM

Fall Exercise Social

Join your exercise buddies for a fun get together and enjoy soups and salads.

Tuesday, November 17 @ 11:15PM

Gratitude Sound Bath

Welcome Thanksgiving week with an uplifting, restorative hour of gratitude, relaxation, and beautiful healing sounds with Lani Voivod.

Saturday,
November 21 @ 12PM

DVD of the Week

Hadestown

The Broadway sensation is now on your home screen. The play retells the story of Orpheus and Eurydice from Greek myth, all against the backdrop of early americana, and blues and jazz soundtrack. It's powerful and uplifting, tragic and soulful. If you missed your chance to see it on the stage you can see the original cast put on one of the greatest musicals of modern times.

Request a Book

Book Match

Kids Instant Book Cart

Libby

Links of the Week

[Show your Support at the Mt Kearsarge Indian Museum Autumn Auction Fundraiser]

[8 New Books Recommended by Readers This Week]

[New U.S. National Park Preserves 'Land of Standing-Up Rocks']

Recurring Adult Programs

Exercise

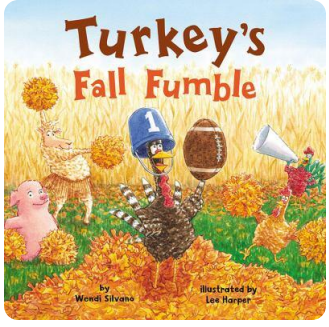

Play

Tech Help

Children's Corner

Turkeys are the gobble of the town this time of year, but did you know that both male and female turkeys gobble? Also, did you know that turkeys can see better than humans? Check out some of these interesting facts about turkeys or come in

Featured program:

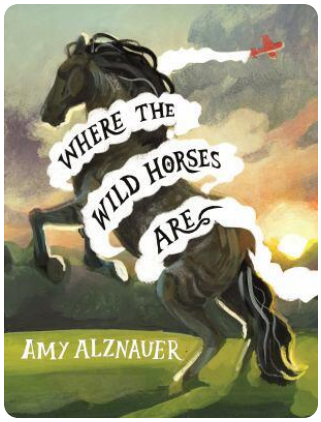

Featured Book:
Turkey's Fall Fumble by Wendi J. Silvano

and check out a book about them!

Drop-In Craft - Turkey Craft!
Saturday, November 21 @ 10:30AM

Teen Scene

October is finally over...
And with that business out of the way, we can spring (or should I say winter?) into our colder-months programming. Home School folks! This means we will start meeting inside in the Teen Room and we will stay there till the sun comes back again. Additionally, there are lots of cozy programs planned such as the upcoming Edible Cookie Dough on the 12th as well as Crochet and Clementines on the 19th. We will see you there and stay warm!

Featured Book:
Where the Wild Horses Are
by Amy Alznauer

Featured Program:
Edible Cookie Dough

Drop in to make this craving-fulfilling snack! Please note this is not a gluten or dairy free treat.
November 12 @ 3PM

Featured Artist: Lakes Region Art Association

We have a new exhibit featuring the artists of the LRAA through the month of November!

Did You Know?

Did you know we offer in-house use of Ancestry.com?

If you're looking to set out on the journey of digging into your family tree then we can help you get started. While at the library proper, you can access the Library Edition of Ancestry.com and gain access to thousands of genealogical records.

Don't let the prohibitive cost of a persona Ancestry.com membership stop your from finding out who you are, and where you came from.

Nature Corner: Beyond Halloween - A Little Gratitude for Bats Part 1

By Wendy Oellers-Fulmer

Now that Halloween's spooky decorations are coming down, let's take a closer look at one creature that deserves far more appreciation and gratitude than fear: the bat. 🦇

Passports

Notary

Become a Volunteer

(Continue reading...)

Become a Friend

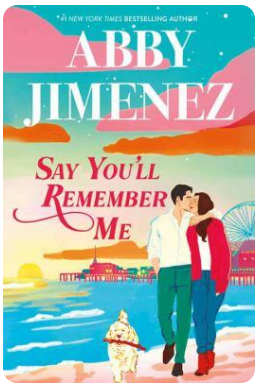

Get To Know Your GPL Team

Jill,
Children's/Young Adult Services

In my free time, I love to be creative! I love to write and keep a journal. My personal favorite is writing poetry and some of my poetry was published.

I also love arts and crafts! Truly, painting is a relaxing activity and most cases I end up painting my walls with fun murals. My last one was sunflowers in my living room!

Say You'll Remember Me
by Abby Jimenez

www.gilfordlibrary.org

Gilford Public Library | 31 Potter Hill Rd. | Gilford, NH 03249 US

Unsubscribe | Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Constant Contact

Try email marketing for free today!