

Hello!

We're a few weeks in to the new year and as it is the traditional time for creating new habits, we have some opportunities for you! If you already volunteer at the library but would like to learn something new, we need help with various projects including paperback covering. Check in with me, Katherine or Jill and we'll get you started.

Know someone looking to volunteer? Send them our way! in the meantime, check out our programs for all ages!
